Worship | Two worship services at 9:30 and 11:00 AM

Jan. 14 "Turning Points" Rev. Jill McAllister

There's an old Chinese proverb that says "May you live in interesting times". I'd say that we have received that gift big time (!) and that choices for how to live, now, abound. Once again, there is wisdom and inspiration to be found in the life and work of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Also today:

~Investment Committee Meeting, 10:30 AM, Library

~First Post-Sermon Response, 12:30 PM, Sanctuary. Come share your thoughts on Jill's sermon – a unique opportunity to reflect and discuss with others here today. Facilitated by Shikha Ghosh Gottfried.

~Climate Justice Team collecting signatures (see p. 2)

Next Week | Two worship services at 9:30 and 11:00 AM

Jan. 21 "Work That Makes a Difference" Rev. Jill McAllister with guest Kenny Lowe

Corvallis resident Kenny Lowe has been working, volunteering, and advocating for the 'at risk', low income, and homeless Corvallis community for nearly a decade. He is currently the Housing and Adult Mental Health Initiative Program Lead at Benton County Mental Health Services. He joins Jill today to consider the work of the Fellowship.

Upcoming Worship | Two worship services at 9:30 and 11:00 AM

Jan. 28 "For Faith and Freedom: The Edict of Torda"
Rev. Jill McAllister

On January 12, in the year 1568, in the small city of Torda in Transylvania, a young king issued an edict of toleration which was radical for his time, and remains radical in ours. This month marks the 450th anniversary of the Edict of Torda, which formed the foundation for Unitarianism upon which we still depend.

HAPPENING SOON

Discuss the Sunday Sermon starts today, Jan. 14 at 12:30 PM!

Join us in a new opportunity to discuss your reactions to the Sunday sermon. Facilitated by Shikha Ghosh Gottfried.

Climate Justice Team Collecting Signatures Today

You might have heard that Oregon legislators are working on carbon pricing legislation, or “cap and invest,” as a way of reducing greenhouse gas emissions and being part of slowing the “runaway train” of climate change. The bill they are working on is commonly known as the “clean energy jobs” bill. There is a letter for us to sign in the social hall during coffee hour encouraging legislators to pass this important legislation. Knowledgeable people will be there to tell you more about it.

Join us this week for Town Hall #3: Monday, Jan. 15 at 7 PM: Slowing the runaway train and taking care of each other

If you worry about how climate change will affect our children and grandchildren, plan to attend the next UUFC Town Hall on Monday, January 15, 7-8:30 PM in the Social Hall. We'll briefly review the challenge before us and the successes that are being achieved here and elsewhere. We'll spend most of our time sharing ideas for personal, congregational, and larger community activities and discuss what we can accomplish together.

Six Sources of UUism, Jan. 21 at 12:30 PM

Join the next discussion of our six sources (of wisdom and inspiration) on January 21 at 12:30 in the Gallery (back of the Sanctuary). Guided lively discussions have already taken place about the first two Sources. Don't miss out on the next one! The topic is wisdom from the world's religions. No previous experience or signup needed. Refreshments provided!

Living with Depression - yours or someone else's

Next gathering: Thursday, January 25, 7 PM. Depression has no favorite time of year, but winter can be especially challenging for many of us. It's always good to remember we're not alone. All are welcome.

"Braving the Wilderness" Class and Discussion, starts Jan. 22

Using social scientist Brene Brown's latest book, Braving the Wilderness, we will explore the four practices of true belonging through reading the book, discussion and reflective activities. Each practice challenges how we think about ourselves, show up with one another, and find our way back to courage and connection. Because we will be building community and connections as we go, we urge participants to plan to attend all sessions. Pre-registration is required. Contact Susan Sanford - 541-521-7416 (susanwulfe@gmail.com) & Alice Lyman 541-753-8125 (aliceklyman41@gmail.com) for more information, and to register.

Words for Reflection

Jan 14, 2018

In a world facing the revolt of ragged and hungry masses of God's children; in a world torn between the tensions of East and West, white and colored, individualists and collectivists; in a world whose cultural and spiritual power lags so far behind her technological capabilities that we live each day on the verge of nuclear co-annihilation; in this world, non-violence is no longer an option for intellectual analysis, it is an imperative for action.
