Worship | Two worship services at 9:30 and 11:00 AM

Oct. 1 "In What Do We Trust, and Why?" Rev. Jill McAllister

Faith might be a problematic word for some, but trust may be even harder. We want to trust, we need to be able to trust, but we have been disillusioned many times. To live a faithful life is to know what we trust, and why. What is trust made of?

Also this Sunday: Action Lunch 12:30 PM

~ Join us after the second service for the first Action Lunch of the church year. This month will benefit Community Services Consortium's (CSC) YouthBuild Program, which provides education and work skills building to at-risk youth. Soups, breads, fruits, and veggies provided by volunteers. Tickets: $5/person.

~Partner Church Team Meeting, 12:30 PM (LIB)

~Special Kirtan: Krishna and Gershone, 7 PM (SFH)

Worship Next week | Two services at 9:30 and 11:00 AM

Oct. 8 "What Guides Our Actions?" Rev. Jill McAllister, with Abby Terris.

Buddhist practice is guided by precepts, which help a person establish a discipline of aligning their actions with their values. Faithfulness requires some practice too-- it is not just an idea. Jill welcomes Abby "Mushin" Terris, the spiritual leader and teacher of the Corvallis Zen Circle, to share with us this morning.

THE SOCIAL JUSTICE/OUTREACH OFFERING THIS MONTH WILL GO TO CSC's YouthBuild Program

HAPPENING SOON

~ Sign Up to Light the Chalice on Sundays

The Chalice Lighter sign-up list is posted outside Jill's office door. Children, youth, and adults are welcome to light the chalice. We need at least one person for each service. You can also send an e-mail to Jill if you'd like to be added to the list -- please note the date and time (9:30 or 11 AM) you're available.

~ UUFC Fundraiser on Monday!

Come enjoy a dinner out at New Morning Bakery from 3-9PM. Simply mention the Fellowship and they will donate a portion back to the Fellowship.

~ Building Project - STAY TUNED!

As our Building Enhancement Project gets underway, you can learn what's going on! The Building Design Team (BDT) is designing a blog so that you can follow along and learn about what is happening with the Building Enhancement Project, in real time.

~ White Supremacy Teach-In Part 2

In May, the UUFC participated in a Sunday worship teach-in on racism and white supremacy, with several hundred other UU congregations. On Sunday, Oct. 15, we'll join again for Part 2. Why? Because even the words and concepts of "white supremacy" are hard for some of us to hear and to understand. Because to get to beloved community, with peace and justice for all, some things must change, and that includes parts of our lives. Because we have more to learn, and then to practice. Join us. Join in this work.

~ First Town Hall Meeting, Sunday, Oct. 22

There are things we need to discuss, all together -- our climate change goals, anti-racism goals, the possibility of providing sanctuary, our stewardship process and more. Plan to join in a monthly town hall discussion of the big questions facing us as a congregation.

CAFE JUSTO HAS GONE SOLAR!

Your coffee has gone solar! The coffee served at UUFC is from a cooperative of growers in Mexico. The roasting facility is on the border, across from Douglas, Arizona. The growers own the roaster, and benefiting from this value added step enables them to have health care and a retirement package, and provides the means for indigenous people to remain on their land. Adjacent to the roasting facility is a coffee shop that employs graduates from the drug treatment program. Two-thirds of the energy needed for Cafe Justo y Mas (the coffee shop) and Cafe Justo (the roasting facility) is now being provided by the sun. They hope to have 100% of their energy needs covered by the end of the year. This organic, shade grown coffee is available for sale at UUFC after Sunday services.

Words for Reflection Sunday, Oct. 1, 2017

We turn aside from an unquiet world, seeking rest for our spirits and space for our thought. We bring our wounds in search of healing, our hopes in search of renewal, our better selves to be awakened once more. May we be dissatisfied with thoughtless pursuits, and foolish faith, with trusting in transient and shallow things. May we find deep within ourselves the courage which always abides – to see ourselves honestly, to cast out our pettiness and prejudice, to be strong enough to be humble, always ready to learn more. We remember all who truly struggle today, for life, for love, for health and food and shelter. We give thanks for all the gifts of our lives. In the days ahead, may we be quick to with kind words, gentle hands, and appreciative thoughts for those whose lives we touch. In this silence, may we glimpse the love and peace and joy which dwell within us, and may they lift us up and guide our way.
