“Swimming to the Other Side” #

GIVING THANKS FOR ALL THAT SUSTAINS US

From the countless gifts we each have been given, gifts of life and love and sustenance, we bring these small portions, to share in the works of love which none of us can accomplish alone.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CLOSING SONG “Here Together” David Glasgow
We have spent time together, and these holy moments give us strength to go down the winding road until we meet again. (repeat)
And my prayer for you is a peace that’s true (pause)
until we meet again.

CLOSING WORDS

WORDS FOR REFLECTION

Everything the Power of the World does is done in a circle. The sky is round, and I have heard that the earth is round like a ball, and so are all the stars. The wind, in its greatest power, whirls. Birds make their nests in circles, for theirs is the same religion as ours. The sun comes forth and goes down again in a circle. The moon does the same, and both are round. Even the seasons form a great circle in their changing, and always come back again to where they were. The life of a man is a circle from childhood to childhood, and so it is in everything where power moves.

Working WITH Our Differences: Skills for this Multi-Cultural World

Saturday – April 18th, 9:30 am -3:00pm

It isn't enough to merely wish that we could "all get along." Good intentions, and being nice, do not go far enough toward understanding the differences that truly trip us up. People are different, that is a fact! We can learn to work with these differences, across language barriers, across ethnic and cultural barriers, across barriers made by our own world-views. In fact, we must learn to see our own biases, and recognize and work with differences if we are to truly promote and realize peace in the world. And all of us can learn these skills!

Join Jill McAllister and Ann Mbacke for an introduction to multi-cultural competency. We'll learn about a developmental model of competency which can be a great foundation for further work in the coming years. This work supports all of our mission – explore, love and act.

For more information, contact Jill. Sign-up today or call the church office to say you are coming, by Thursday, April 16. A light lunch will be served. Childcare can be arranged if you need it; let us know by Tuesday, April 14.

Summer RE Sessions – Choose One Sunday

We're looking for folks to share with the children for one hour, one Sunday morning this summer. Our theme for the children will be Peace, Justice and the Interdependent Web of Life. Do you have an interest, passion, or knowledge you'd like to share with a group of 5-to-10-year-olds? It could be an appreciation of nature, a form of creative self-expression, a story you want to share, a game to play, an art project, an area of science or geography you're knowledgeable about, or raising awareness about an issue. If so, sign up on the blue easel in the foyer. You'll get support and assistance from the lead teacher, a teen aid, and RE staff. It's fun, it's easy, and it's rewarding!

Pat Humphries (Emma's Revolution)

REFRAIN:

We are living 'neath the great big dipper, we are washed by the very same rain
We are swimming in this stream together, some in power and some in pain
We can worship this ground we walk on, cherishing the beings that we live beside Loving spirits will live forever,
We're all swimming to the other side.

I am alone and I am searching, hungering for answers in my time
I am balanced at the brink of wisdom, I'm impatient to receive a sign
I'll move forward with my senses open, imperfection it be my crime
In humility I will listen,
We're all swimming to the other side.

REFRAIN

On this journey through thoughts and feelings, finding intuition – my head, my heart
I am gathering the tools together, I'm preparing to do my part
All of those who have come before me, band together and be my guide
Loving lessons that I will follow,
We're all swimming to the other side.

REFRAIN

When we get there we'll discover all the gifts we've been given to share
Have been with us since life's beginning and we never noticed they were there.
We can balance at the brink of wisdom never recognizing that we've arrived
Loving spirits will live together
We're all swimming to the other side.

REFRAIN (last time, repeat last two lines – loving spirits.....)
