CLOSING WORDS

WORDS FOR REFLECTION

We have forgotten who we are.
We have alienated ourselves from the unfolding of the cosmos.
We have become estranged from the movements of the earth.
We have turned our backs on the cycles of life.

We have sought only our own security, we have exploited simply for our own ends, we have distorted our knowledge, we have abused our power.

Now the land is barren and the waters are poisoned and the air is polluted. Now the forests are dying and the creatures are disappearing and the humans are despairing.

We ask forgiveness.
We ask for the gift of remembering.
We ask for the strength to change.

We welcome and celebrate the presence and participation of transgender, gay, lesbian, heterosexual and bisexual people.
We are an official Welcoming Congregation of the UUA.

“Ghaflah: The Greatest Sin”

The Rev. Jill K. McAllister

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Corvallis is a member congregation of the Unitarian Universalist Association.

Thank you for helping us “tend the flame!”

A week ago we began our month-long annual pledge drive - our annual opportunity to consider again what we value most here, and to recommit to supporting it financially. Thank you to the 47 couples or individuals who have already pledged (more than half of whom are “fair share givers!”) Thank you, thank you!

If you haven't pledged yet, we invite you to pause to read and think about the pledge materials we have written; have a conversation with yourself, your partner, and others at the UUFC; and then pledge! The work of our church depends on each of us, including you; and, as we did last year, we have a goal of 100% participation this month.

For the first time ever, we are offering access to pledge materials online. Simply go to our website (uucorvallis.org) to find the pledge materials on the home page. You will also find an online pledging form that makes pledging easier than ever before! If you did not respond to our surveys telling us that you would prefer electronic access, we mailed pledge materials to you, which you should have by now. However, if you choose, you can still opt to pledge the easy way – online.

If you have any questions, concerns, or simply want to have a conversation with one of us about pledging, we would love to talk with you. You can contact any one of us personally, or use our committee e-mail: stewardship@uucorvallis.org.

UUFC Stewardship Committee: Virginia Shapiro (chair) 541-223-8859, Gerri Buckles, Uta Hussong-Christian, Monica Jacobson-Tennessen, Kathy Kopczynski, and Anna Sontag.
