“Waking Up White” with Joel Miller

Former interim minister Joel Miller returns to Corvallis and the UUFC pulpit, from his current congregation in Rochester, NY. Come help give him a hearty welcome! He'll be sharing about his own waking up (not yet “woke”, but working on it) and relate it to the experiences that many White folks have in working to be “woke”.

*May we have the courage to discern what we need,
and what we no longer need.*

UUFC Office Summer Hours begin July 11

Summer hours for July and August will be Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM.

All - Fellowship Potluck Picnic, July 15 from 3-8 PM

Join us for a potluck at Ann Marchant and Russ Anderson's place near Philomath, 24882 Evergreen Rd, 97370. Enjoy a big swimming pond and walking trails in the woods and a big yard to just sit and visit. Watermelons will be provided and there is a barbeque grill for anyone to use. Live music provided by Rita Brown and friends and possibly others. Please RSVP (on the website, or by hand today in the foyer) so we can plan accordingly.

UUFC Justice teams update: Immigration/Sanctuary issues and more

The Fellowship will host a presentation by Pedro Sosa, staff person for the American Friends Service Committee in Oregon, detailing responses to immigration issues and providing sanctuary for immigrants at risk, if needed. This will be an interfaith gathering, open to all who are interested in knowing more about the current situation and how we can be part of an effective response. Wednesday, July 12, at the UUFC, 1-5 PM. Let Melinda Sayavedra know if you plan to attend.

On July 6 the UUFC Climate Justice team heard a presentation from Jill McAllister, with community members John Gentile and Linda Lovett, who all attended a leadership training presented by the Climate Reality Project, hosted by former Vice President Al Gore. The CRP links thousands of climate activists around the world to work together. The local interfaith climate action network will meet again on July 13.

New Connection and Chalice Circles beginning

One group will have an LGBTQA focus. We will meet every other Thursday evening from 7:00 - 8:30 pm starting July 27. You are asked to commit to staying with the group for at least one full cycle of 8 sessions / 4 months before deciding to stay or leave *Please NOTE: "LGBTQA" refers to ANYONE who identifies themselves as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and/or AFFIRMING. Marginalized sexuality and gender-related experience may or may not be an explicit focus of discussion. For more information, contact Jules Graves, julie.graves1@gmail.com or 303-946-5241.

Two other groups will focus on topics chosen by each group. If you've been hoping to become part of a circle, now is a good time to join. Let the church office know if you are interested (office@uucorvallis.org).

Religious Exploration Teachers/Guides

You can be a part of our fabulous religious exploration program for children and youth! Teachers/guides are needed for the different age levels. Curriculum is provided, training is provided, new or old friends to work with are provided. Joy and satisfaction are gratis! Will you join this essential ministry of the UUFC? Talk to Michael Molk for more information, molk@uucorvallis.org.

Ordination to UU Ministry – Leslie Chartier, July 16

All are invited to the ordination of Leslie Chartier to the UU ministry, on Sunday, July 16, at 3 pm, at First Methodist Church on Monroe Street, Corvallis. The location is the Methodist Church because Leslie served as a ministerial intern there (an interfaith collaboration!). However, only members of the UUFC can ordain her, so we hope to see as many of you there as possible. A reception will follow the service.

Former Ministers Visit in July

Former minister and minister emerita Gretchen Woods, and former interim minister Joel Miller will be in Corvallis for the ordination of Leslie Chartier. We hope they'll both be attending the all-Fellowship potluck picnic on Saturday July 15, at the home of Ann Marchant and Russ Anderson. If you'd like to make sure you have a time to connect with one or both of them while they're in town, please let Jill McAllister know.

UUFC Newsletter: Summer Changes
