We gravitate toward people "like us" yet we depend upon those who are different. Perhaps this is the most important thing we have to learn – to love the fact of our differences, and to love the differences themselves.

Amidst the noise and rush of our lives, may we find the calm center where there is always space for possibility to unfold.

Building Design Team available today for questions

Members of the team will be available in the gallery at the back of the sanctuary following the second service to talk with individuals or groups the building design process - where we are so far, what has been discussed, how and when decisions will be made, how congregational input is being sought and incorporated, etc. Please bring any questions you may have.

Connect Up October offerings

There are many great events for October – we hope one fits in your schedule! You can now find Connect Up events on the UUFC website. If you didn't get a chance to sign up for an event, forgot where or when an event is happening, or are considering hosting an event - go to http://uucorvallis.org/?page\_id=3776 (and bookmark it) and you'll find this month's events and a step by step guide to hosting an event. Have fun!

Leadership Supper Mon Oct. 17 at 6PM. All UUFC leaders are invited, needed and welcome.

All leaders of Fellowship councils, committees, task groups and projects are invited and encouraged to join for our first Leadership Supper of the church year. We'll focus on the council structure: how are all committees and task forces related to the councils, as part of our mission, and who is responsible for making what decisions? Part of answering again that age-old question: How do things work around here?

Seven Principles Café Conversation Circle Begins Oct. 30, 12:30 pm

In this Adult RE conversation circle we'll unpack the seven UU principles one by one and explore what it looks like to embody these principles in our lives. ## The UUFC Library: Visit, Read, Donate!

The Rita McDonald Library, located right next to the office, has greatly expanded its collection of books and audio-visual materials, thanks to recent donations. New sections have been created, including Aging, Death, Nature, Disability, Simplicity, and Relationships. In the Justice section, you can find books on racism, climate and environmental activism, and economic inequality. The Library is now under the auspices of Adult Religious Growth and Learning. Goals for this church year include acquiring more books and audio-visual materials, increasing borrowing, and coordinating closely with the other Adult RE programs. Donations of materials are most welcome. Are there books, DVDs, or CDs on your shelves that you would like to make available to other members of our congregation? In particular, we are in need of back issues of UU World. Questions? Call Christine Robins: 541-738-2610.

New to the Fellowship? Welcome!

Once a month, we offer a one-hour First Steps orientation session. If you are new to UUFC, exploring Unitarian Universalism for the first time, and trying to find your way around the Fellowship, this is for you. At our First Steps class, you'll find out more about us, how we connect, and get a tour of the building. This First Steps class is offered every 4th Sunday during the school year at the new time of 11:10 AM. For more information, contact the First Steps coordinator, Elona Meyer (elonameyer@msn.com). Each quarter, we also offer two classes as part of the formal membership exploration process – UU Path and Membership. Register at the Welcome Table on Sundays. The next UU Path class is on Saturday, October 22, 2016, and the next membership class is on Sunday, October 23, 2016.
