Summer services begin June 5: ONE service at 10:00 AM

Next Sunday: May 15, 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“Homesick for the Future”

*Rachel Brinker, Beth Runciman,
Monica Jacobson Tennessen, and friends*

It is almost a cliché to say that we are afraid of the future and for the future, especially the futures of our children and grandchildren. But we must be careful in the assumptions we make. Lots of people see hope and positive change on many horizons, and futures worth living into. Our speakers this morning are Fellowship members in their 30s and 40s, who are raising children, working, living, sharing, and envisioning the future we are working to build.

In all places and at all times, may love guide us back to right relations.

UUFC Annual Meeting TODAY 12:30 PM

All UUFC members are needed and encouraged to attend, following the second service today. The meeting agenda includes an update on building expansion planning, including consideration of a capital campaign. We will vote on an offer from the Corvallis Zen Center to purchase the neighboring house we own on Circle Blvd. This vote requires a quorum of 40% of the congregation's voting membership. We will also elect new Board and Nominating committee members and approve a 2016-2017 budget. Light lunch and childcare available. Please attend and participate.

Over 65 Group: Nutrition and Sustainability Talk

UUFC member Ann Marchant, R.D., instructor in OSU's College of Public Health & Human Sciences, will share her nutritional expertise in a talk about eating a plant-based diet and sustainability. All are welcome on Thursday, May 19, at 3:00 PM in the Sanctuary.

UUFC Leadership Supper, Thursday May 19, 6:00 PM

The third and final supper meeting of the year for all leaders of committees, task forces, councils and events. We'll review our progress for the year, work on goals for next year, and evaluate our work in relation to our mission. All leaders of committees, task forces, councils and events are encouraged to attend. Back by popular demand – the burrito bar supper. Beans, rice, tortillas and cheese provided. Bring salsa, veggies, and other toppings to share.

UUFC Clothing Rumpus, Sunday May 22

What's a Clothing Rumpus? It's a fundraising event for the Women's Retreat. A chance to clean out your closet. An opportunity to augment your wardrobe with fabulous, lightly used clothes. It's ecologically sound – reduce, reuse, recycle! Bring your clothes to the Fellowship on the afternoon of Saturday, May 21, or Sunday morning, and then come shop after both services – men's, women's and children's clothing included.

Choir Concert: Rutter's Requiem, Sunday May 22, 2:00 PM

The UUFC choir plus instrumentalists present one of the most well-known choral works of the 20th century—Requiem by John Rutter. Composed in 1985, it is a powerful and profound setting of the some of the text from the Requiem Mass (Mass for the Dead), and contains text in both English and Latin. Come enjoy!

Environmental Reading Circle, Sunday May 22, 3:00 PM

The Environmental Reading Circle will meet next Sunday to begin discussing The Sixth Extinction by Elizabeth Kolbert, at 3940 NW Lincoln Ave. in Corvallis. For more information contact Elizabeth Waldorf (541 207-3613, dewaldorf@comcast.net).

Summer Services – interested to help plan and present one?

Jill McAllister is looking for a small group interested in working together to plan and present one summer service on a mutually agreeable topic. Let her know if you'd like to be part of such a group (minister@uucorvallis.org).

Conversational Spanish Group Forming at UUFC

Practice your Spanish, or express yourself in your preferred language, with other Spanish speakers at the Fellowship. We can share ideas and experiences related to UUism, religion and spirituality, and life in the world in general. If you are interested please call Sylvia Geddes (479-684-1212, geddessylvia@yahoo.com).

Be a Religious Exploration guide with our children!

A beautiful way to serve our community, uphold our values, invest in the future, and grow in wisdom and understanding. To learn more, write your name and contact information on the easel in the foyer, next to the age group you'd like to work with. Michael Molk will contact you. Help is also needed for summer Sundays with children and youth – one Sunday at a time. Let Michael know if you'd like to help with one summer Sunday.
