Sunday Worship

ONE SERVICE ONLY, ON ZOOM, AT 10:00 AM

"HOW IT LOOKS FROM HERE"

People are different -- we know that and value it. Fellowship people belong to different generations, and are not necessarily representative of them; assumptions can be problematic. Four readers will join Rev. Jill to share what we heard from a recent Fellowship survey, to give voice to some of the important differences between us in how we perceive past, present, and future, and one another.

We’re still in a holding pattern due to cold Sunday temps and Omicron, so this service will be hosted only Zoom, beginning at 10 am, here. There will be no in-person service this week. An online coffee hour follows the service. Bring your own coffee.

Reminder: You can watch recordings of Sunday services in the Sermon Archives here.

CONDOLENCES

We send love and support to the family of Nancy Leman, who were with her when she died on Jan. 14 at the age of 97. Nancy and her husband Craig were founding members of the Fellowship.

Sunday Services on Facebook Live

This Sunday’s service will be livestreamed on Facebook as an alternate way for people to attend. To watch, visit this link at 10 AM: https://www.facebook.com/uucorvallis/live

First Steps: Learn about UUFC

First Steps, is an informal monthly gathering of folks interested in learning more about Unitarian-Universalism and our Fellowship—how we make connections, build community and live out the legacy of our liberal religious tradition. It is nonobligatory and informative, for those new to Unitarian-Universalism, as well as those who arrive from UU congregations in other locations.

Our next First Steps gathering is next week, 2-3:30 PM, Sunday, January 30th. To join the zoom gathering, contact Elona Meyer at elonameyer@icloud.com
COVID Information
- Each household in the U.S. is eligible to receive 4 COVID tests through USPS, by filling out this brief form: USPS.com/covidtests

Save the Date for our Next Town Hall!
Our exploration of intergenerationality continues! Join us at 1:00pm on January 30 for a fun Zoom meeting, where we can reflect together on what we've learned about intergenerationalism after the services on the 23rd and the 30th! If you'd like to be a part of the party, please RSVP at the form below (whether or not you'd like pizza!). We hope to see you there!

Learning from Depression, Together
This sharing and support circle continues, with meetings by Zoom every other Monday evening. The next meeting is January 24, at 7 PM. All who live with depression in some form - yours or someone else's, newly appeared or very familiar -- are invited to join in. Facilitators: John Morris and Tom Sattizahn. Join with this link: https://zoom.us/j/97411015708

Another Opportunity To Learn About Mighty Networks
Many of us are signed-up to use the Fellowship's online discussion platform for general sharing of information and insight. Some are still unsure of, and confused by, how Mighty Networks works. If you'd like to understand better, and be able to enter into the sharing and discussions more easily, join Rev. Monica Jacobsen Tennesen on Saturday, January 29, at 4 pm, on Zoom, for a walk-through plus questions and answers. We can share what we know and learn some new things on the fly as we explore together. Please send your specific questions to her at monica.djt@gmail.com (with "Mighty Networks" in the subject line) to help inform our agenda for the evening.

Indigenous Connections Team: Women as change agents in forestry!
Your UUFC Indigenous Connections Team invites you to this thought-provoking online OSU Starker lecture, this Wednesday 7pm.

SOCIAL CONCERNS OFFERING IN JANUARY
UNITY SHELTER

Our January Social Concerns offerings will support Unity Shelter to continue to help meet needs of unhoused / unsheltered persons in our community especially in this cold season. Unity Shelter includes the Men's Shelter, Room at the Inn Women's Shelter, Safe Place / Safe Camp and now the Third Street Commons. To learn more, visit their website. Fellowship members were regular volunteers when these shelters were seasonal. Volunteering is beginning to be possible again - especially at the Women's Shelter. And if you missed the Dec. 4 Unity Shelter "Tour of Homes", you can still watch it to find out about this great work.

Displacement and Human Rights: All In for Climate Justice

Friday, April 22 - Sunday, May 1, 2022 | UU@UN Intergenerational Spring Seminar
Co-sponsored by: UU Ministry for Earth, UU Service Committee

The Seminar will be held virtually from April 22 – May 1, 2022. Unitarian Universalist youth and adults ages 14 and up can participate to deepen their connections with one another and develop their knowledge and skills to take action to create climate justice. Registration rates are on a tiered scale for more equitable and accessible participation and will be open through April 3, 2022. Register here.

Join UUs for General Assembly 2022!

In 2022, we will have the option of meeting online or in-person! For those who enjoyed the convenience and accessibility of remote participation, General Assembly will continue to offer a virtual experience with robust programming and enhanced delegate discussion tools. Join us June 22 - 26, 2022 online or in-person in Portland, Oregon. Register here.

MASKS ARE STILL NECESSARY!

The state-wide mandate of universal mask use for all public indoor settings is still in effect. Medical grade masks are recommended, instead of cloth. We also ask that if you are on the Fellowship grounds for the purposes of eating or drinking, that you please maintain a minimum of 6 feet of social distance. Thank you for helping us keep each other safe!
