Words evolve to reflect changes in attitudes and social relationships, but our sense of belonging endures. We need each other. The words we use can build community or walls. We can choose.

No reservation needed, vaccinations expected. After the service, stay for online coffee hour or join for coffee in person at 11:00 am on the Fellowship’s back deck.

Masks are not required outdoors, but we ask that you please respect active consent about spacing. Masks are still required indoors when using the bathroom or getting coffee.

Reminder: You can watch recordings of Sunday services in the Sermon Archives here.

Post Sermon Discussion

This week we will have a Post Sermon Discussion at 11:30 under the same outdoor space as the service. Shikha Ghosh Gottfried will facilitate.

In-person Sunday activities for kids

All ages welcome. Not required, but if you can, let us know who you’re bringing so that we have adequate adult support, using this RSVP form.
Sundays in July

Coming up in July we have three different participatory services, all outdoors!

- On July 17, a chance to "meet the trees" on our grounds with Jesse Ford, including opportunities to make art as part of connecting with our trees.
- On July 24, we'll have guest worship leaders who will create a temporary labyrinth on our lawn and offer a service about the spiritual practice of traveling a labyrinth. Come hear about this practice and then engage in it yourself!
- On July 31, for our Lughnasadh Wheel of the Year service, we'll once again have activities in the week leading up to the service, a story-based service to explore the themes of Lughnasadh, and an outdoor festival to follow.

Article II Study Process

Our UUA Article II Study Commission is still seeking input in response to their current round of discussion prompts! Framing and context presentations can be found in the recordings of General Sessions II, III, and IV from the recent General Assembly; all are available here: https://www.uua.org/ga/off-site/2022

- Introduction to the work, Purpose, and Freedom of Belief in General Session II (beginning with Dan McKanan's theological framing at 20:35 and our presentation at 32:30)
- Values and Covenant in General Session III (our presentation begins at 24:15, followed by a break, and then Dr. Elías Ortega's theological framing, which begins at 1:29:20)
- Inclusion and Inspirations in General Session IV (our presentation begins at 33:00, followed by a break, and then Rev. Dr. Sofía Betancourt's theological framing at 1:20:34)

Visit https://padlet.com/A2SC/GA22 to view the discussion prompts and give your input to the Study Commission. Thank you!

Last call: Chair volunteers still needed!

We still need some volunteer help to move chairs in order to have outdoor services! Without chair movers, we'll have to adjust our worship plans. Thank you to the few people who have volunteered!

We're looking for teams of 2-3 people per Sunday who can arrive around 9 AM to roll out the chair rack and place the chairs on the lawn with appropriate spacing, and help get the chairs re-racked and rolled back inside after the service. Email Jamie Petts at office@uucorvallis.org to sign up for some Sundays to help out.

UUFC Building Open Hours Cancelled

Now that the weather is nice and more folks are meeting outside, we are cancelling the UUFC Open Building Hours for the remainder of the summer. We will reconsider them in the fall.
SOCIAL CONCERNS OFFERING IN JULY

DRUUM is a Unitarian Universalist People of Color Ministry and anti-racist collective bringing lay and religious professionals together to overcome racism through resistance and transform Unitarian Universalism through our multicultural experiences. We developed from several older ministries, namely the African American UU Ministries and Jubilee World anti-racism change trainings. Learn more at https://www.druumm.org/

To donate, go to the UUFC web page and click on the "SUNDAY DONATIONS" button.

Art by YOU

Be sure to take some time to appreciate the art on the walls of the Sanctuary -- pieces created collaboratively and intergenerationally at our June 5th interactive service. The art illustrates both the interconnectedness of our community with a series of remixed portraits of Fellowship attendees and the thoughts and feelings about our shared values through words, pictures, and patterns. It's a beautiful visual display!

Plan Ahead

- Sun, July 17, Gentle Yoga on the Lawn with Jamie Petts, 12-1 PM
- Sun, July 24, Labyrinth on the Lawn
- Sun, July 31, Lughnasadh Festival following the service
- Sun, Aug 21 Celebration of Life for Nancy Leman
- Sun, Aug 28, Ice Cream Social and Activities, after the service

MASKS ARE STILL NECESSARY!

The state-wide mandate of universal mask use for all public indoor settings has been lifted, but at the Fellowship, masks are still required inside, and N95 and KN95 masks are recommended, instead of surgical or cloth. We also ask that if you are on the Fellowship grounds outside eating or drinking, that you please maintain a minimum of 6 feet of social distance.
